CLARKSTON'S GREATEST CHAMPIONSHIP MACHINE

There have been many dominating individual champions in the proud history of DeKalb County wrestling.

Briarcliff's immortal Bucky Harrelson captured four consecutive state titles from 1961-64 and added consecutive county crowns in 1963 and 1964 for a total of six.

Lithonia's legendary Arty McGuire topped the state field in four straight competitions from 1973-76.

Southwest DeKalb's Dequan Warner registered county golds in 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 and added state triumphs in 2006 and 2007.

McNair's Darren Cotton (1999-02), Columbia's Zerbin Singleton (2000-03) and Tucker's Carey Cloud (2008-11) proved to be the best in four consecutive county outings.

Nobody, however, has matched the postseason success of Clarkston's Kirk Hoffman, who rolled to four straight county crowns in 1977, 1978, 1979 and 1980 and three state victories in 1978, 1979 and 1980 for a total yield of seven.

WRESTLING HISTORY

Memorable coaches and a long line of individual and team state championships are just a small part of the illustrious history of wrestling in DeKalb County.

Sam Black, Sam Edenfield, George Hogan , Mike Godlewski and Ed Winterstein are among the hallowed coaching figures that made DeKalb County the initial and clear dynasty in this sport in the 1960s.

Robert Cooley, Pat Watkins, John Allen, Nick Janoulis, Bill Venable, Lee Medwick and Brian Hage among others added to the impressive local coaching resume in the 1970s, followed by Chuck Mize, Mike Chonko, Cecil Flowe and Maso Moon in the 1980s and Darrell Moore, Mark Adams and Shannon Miller in the 1990s.

Only a handful of wrestlers have been talented enough to capture four state championships, and DeKalb County boasts two individuals on that list in Briarcliff's Bucky Harrelson and Lithonia's Arty McGuire.

Harrelson claimed individual state titles in four different weight classes, starting at 127 pounds in 1961 and continuing at 133 in 1962, 145 in 1963 and 154 in 1964.

McGuire began his equally amazing string at 105 pounds in 1973, and went on to add three more top crowns at 112 in 1974, 119 in 1975 and 126 in 1976.

Black's Briarcliff Barons dominated the sport of wrestling like no other in the early days, winning six straight state team titles from 1962-67. McEachern would later go on to break that record streak in the 1990s.

Along with Harrelson's heroics, Mike Godlewski, Mike Swanson, Steve Godlewski, Donnie Massey, Ken Curl, Eddie Kalvelage, Randy Lane and Larry Graham won two individual state crowns each in helping to lead the way during this memorable stretch for a Briarcliff program that also won county seven consecutive times from 1962-68.

Cross Keys, Druid Hills and Avondale served as the primary challengers to Briarcliff in the battle for county and state supremacy in the first six years after wrestling was first officially sanctioned in 1961.

Edenfield guided Cross Keys to the first state team championship in the history of the sport in 1961. The Indians also cracked the top 10 in six of the next seven years in remaining a top power for most of the decade.

Druid Hills finished in the top 10 as a team at state in each of the first seven years. The Red Devils also came the closest to unseating Briarcliff at county during that period, grabbing runnerup honors four straight times from 1965-68. Legendary football skipper T. McFerrin served as the head coach in two of those county showings.

Crawford Kennedy ran the show for an Avondale wrestling juggernaut that gained a share of the county title with Briarcliff in 1962. The Blue Devils also placed in the top 10 as a team at state on seven occasions in the 1960s.

Tommy Carlisle, David Cooper, Paul Senkbeil and Charlie Coats of Avondale and Bill "The Animal" Glass of Druid Hills are just a few of the super individual stars that made these schools into top county and state forces.

Walker emerged as the next local power in the late 1960s under the leadership of Hogan. The War Hawks nearly matched Briarcliff's state streak, winning five consecutive crowns from 1967-71. Walker also won three straight county championships from 1969-71. Ron Harris and Russell Gardner won two individual state titles to lead the way.

Chamblee and Columbia next took center stage for most of the 1970s, combining to win six consecutive county titles from 1974-79 and six state crowns in the same period.

Cooley's Chamblee powerhouse rose to the top of the county pack five times in the 1970s, winning the top prize in 1974, 1975, 1977, 1978 and 1979. The Bulldogs also topped the AAA state field in 1974 and AAAA in 1979.

John "Horsemeat" Stewart, Alan Stewart, Cody Conarro, Paul Stewart, Danny Hovey, Robert Hovey and Frank Hovey are among a large group of state champs that shined individually for Chamblee.

Columbia followed a slightly different path under the leadership of Godlewski, roaring to four state crowns in 1973, 1974, 1976 and 1977. The Eagles, meanwhile, took home their lone county triumph in 1976. Tip Jimerson, Jay Frost and John Plavcan paced the individual charge with two state triumphs each.

Stone Mountain in 1969 and Lithonia in 1971 also registered state team victories in the latter part of the first 10 years of wrestling's existence on the high school level.

Towers has ranked as perhaps the most consistent program in the county from the start. The Titans won their lone state title in 1975 under Medwick and have more top 10 team finishes than any team in the county at 28.

Clay Haydon at 112, Danny Wallace at 126 and Jack Owens at 145 claimed individual triumphs in leading the way for the Titans in the state championship campaign of 1975.

Hage led Avondale to county and state team crowns in 1983 and then proceeded to guide Redan to county titles in 1984, 1985, 1990 and 1991 and a state triumph in 1984.

Mize won a state championship at Redan in 1983, while Columbia topped the AAAA field under Moon in 1988 and Janoulis led Lakeside to the head of the AAA pack in 1997 for the final state victory.

2022-23 DEKALB COUNTY WRESTLING YEAR IN REVIEW

Southwest DeKalb put together a season for the ages in leading the way among local wrestling entrants in the 2022-23 campaign.

Whether the competition sat on the county or state level, coach Keith Johnson's Panthers proved to be the cream of the crop.

Southwest DeKalb began an impressive march through the local opposition while capturing the William S. Venable DeKalb County Varsity Wrestling Championship team crown.

The Panthers scored 235.5 points to narrowly hold off the determined challenges of Dunwoody (226), St. Pius (202) and Marist (189) at the top of the final team standings.

Four individuals claimed gold medals and 10 total wrestlers walked away with medals to pace the victorious Southwest DeKalb team effort.

Senior Jayden Hammonds started the victorious Panther effort, rumbling past Miller Grove's Tyrone Williams in the first place match in the 138 pound weight class.

Senior Dharrin Smith followed with a second gold medal showing at 157 pounds, defeating Connor Sharp of St. Pius in the final.

Senior two-sport star Jerrel Baskins notched the third Southwest DeKalb first place result, besting Arabia Mountain's Langston Blakely in the championship battle at 175 pounds.

The fourth and final gold place showing came at 215 pounds, where junior two-sport standout Isaiah Scott took care of Stone Mountain's Erick Barrios in the final.

Junior Malik Colquitt nearly added a fifth gold medal, advancing to the final at 150 pounds before falling to Dunwoody's Richard Remigailo and settling for a still strong silver result.

Other Panthers who made it to the medal stand included senior Cassidy Gibson at 106 (5th), sophomore Jordan Allen at 120 (4th), freshman Kenyon Muse at 126 (4th), junior Brian Pitts at 165 (4th) and sophomore Zyeed Conwell at 190 (3rd).

The county team triumph is the third for Southwest DeKalb under the coaching leadership of Johnson, with the others coming in 2007 and 2011.

Dunwoody, meanwhile, came up just 9.5 points away from winning a sixth county team crown under the guidance of coach Luke McSorley.

The Wildcats entered the 2023 county showdown with previous team triumphs in 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020 and 2022.

Dunwoody placed five individuals in the final, with three going on to capture gold medals, two taking home silver and 11 earning some form of medal overall.

Sophomore Charlie Ruark at 120, senior Charlie Mixson at 132 and senior Richard Remigailo at 150 claimed the gold medals, while senior Sam Scothorn at 126 pounds and senior Cohen Heinrich at 190 produced silver medals.

The remaining six Wildcats to snare a medal included sophomore Alex McKissick at 113 (3rd), senior Isaac Kaufman at 138 (3rd), junior Colin Murphy at 144 (4th), freshman David Remigailo at 157 (5th), senior Eric Garracho at 165 (5th) and junior Steven Crespo at 215 (4th).

Several other wrestlers turned in strong performances at county, led by the gold medal efforts of Marist's Forest Briesacher at 106, Howard Heller at 138 and Xavier Byams at 190, freshman Deonte' Smith of Druid Hills at 113, Columbia sophomore Thawbaan As-Siddiq at 126, Arabia Mountain senior Malik Conley at 165 and Tucker junior Antez Starks at 285.

Southwest DeKalb carried the momentum gained from the county championship performance to another stellar outing at the state Class AAAA tournament.

The Panthers received three gold medal showings and one silver on the way to scoring 97 points and placing third behind Lovett (161) and Central Carrollton (120.2) in the final AAAA team standings. Smith at 157, Baskins at 175 and Scott at 215 claimed the first place results, while Hammonds also soared to a super third place finish.

As-Siddiq soared to a silver medal for Columbia at 126 pounds, and Arabia Mountain received a pair of fifth place outings from Conley at 157 and Blakely at 175 to highlight the remainder of the local individual state results.
